Tolophone No. 12. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE.

The following extract is from a letter written in 1883 by Sir EDWARD M. ARCHIBALD (late Her Britannic Majesty's Consul General in New

" Brighton, 15th November, 1883. " I have satisfaction in stating after an official residence at New York for more than twenty-five years, during which I had opportunities of becoming acquainted with the character and standing of that Boolety, that in my judgment it is a sound and well-established institution. ably managed, and offering great advantages to all persons seeking the benefits of life assurance "In support of the claims of the Equitable Society to public confidence, I may briefly refer:-"First-To its great popularity in the United States, evidenced by its rapid growth and remarkable financial prosperity, standing as it now does, in the foremost rank of life assurance companies, as well in Europe as in America.

Secondly-That in the United States there is annually a rigid governmental inspection of the affairs of all life insurance companies. in order to insure a strict compliance with the legal requirements binding upon such institutions; and, further, that such inspections take place not only in the State of New York, which is the seat of this Society, but in every other State in the Union in which it transacts business.

"Thirdly-That the Directors of the Equitable life Assurance Society, of whom the greater CHINESE STORIES, by Robt. K. Douglas. Illust. part are personally known to me, and the rest by reputation, are American citizens of the highest obstructor and standing as merchants and practical men of businessseveral of them connected with some of the to furnish an additional guarantee of the stability and the prudent management of the Society. For these reasons, therefore, among others, I regard the claims of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States upon public confidence as

A reporter had a chat yesterday with Secretary Carlisle about the situation. In course of the conversation the Secretary said that from 1792 to 1873, a period of eighty-one years, the total amount of silver dollars coined was 8.045.838. In 1873 coinage was stopped by an act of Congress but resumed in 1878 under the Bland-Allison act, under which up to July 14. 1890, semething over twelve years, there was coined $378,166.793; also from trade dollars $5.078,472, and from the seignorage of bullion $6,641,109, making an aggregate of $389,886,374 in full legal tender silver money issued by the Government since 1878. Of this amount only $8,016,016 was in actual circulation the first day of the present month, fre remainder being held in the Treasury as par t of the assets of the Government or represented by outstanding certificates. Under the set of July 14, 1890, there bad been coiled $29,408,461, which makes the total $419,294.832, or more than fifty times as much as during the previous eighty-one years. In addition to the coinage the Secretary has purchased under the act of July, 1-90, and now holds in the van is of the Treasury accoined 124,292,532 fine out ces of silver bullion, which cost the people of the United States $114,299,920 and is worth to-day at the market price of silver $101.411,386, thus showning a loss of $ 0,888,534. By the terms of the sea the Secretary was required to pay for the silver bullion by an issue of new United States notes payable in coin, and that upon demand of the holder of such notes they shall be redeemed in gold or silver at the discretion of the Secretary, it being in the language of the not the established policy of the
